

Welcome to ANM Global!

Law is a personal service business and building a firm is very much tied to building personal relationships. We spend a good chunk of time travelling, building and maintaining personal relationships with existing partners, colleagues and developing new relationships with clients.